

"IN ENGLISH" JIGSAW DICTATION UNIT 6 (A)

This is the Old _____ in downtown Los Angeles. It is the _____ of L.A. The buildings _____ 100 years _____. The Pico House _____ the first hotel in Los Angeles. There are many _____ old trees in the _____. A man is _____ across the street to the _____. This _____ the first fire _____ in L.A. The _____ with its kiosk _____ a beautiful place to _____, rest and relax.

What are the _____ watching? They _____ watching some _____. What is the man _____? He _____ walking toward the _____.

This _____ an old church on Olvera Street. There _____ no cars on Olvera Street, _____ there are many small _____. The Spanish name of L.A. is _____ this cross. Los Angeles began _____ September 11, 1781. L.A. is over 200 years _____.

There _____ a great place to _____ Mexican food across _____ the church. This _____ with their baby is _____ some food. Inside the _____ people are _____ to order. _____ women are _____ tortillas. They _____ them on the stove. _____ people are sitting _____ tables and enjoying the _____ day.

Tourists _____ walking _____ the stands. A woman _____ a purse is _____ for a pretty dress. A family is _____ for a restaurant. They _____ hungry.

We are _____ down the stairs to a _____ shop. Look at the _____! Look at the _____ colors and sizes. The _____ is opening the _____ register. Now we are _____ the candle shop and _____ up the stairs. There _____ a woman in _____ of a stall.

There's a _____ restaurant. It's _____ to eat _____ all year in L.A. Those two men are looking _____ some postcards. The _____ on Olvera Street _____ very old. The women are _____ on some hats. _____ friend is _____ a picture of _____.

Look _____ the flowers. This _____ one of the first _____ in Los Angeles. _____ name is Avila Adobe. People _____ tours through it _____ day. There _____ many interesting things to see and _____ at Olvera Street.

Two women _____ sitting in front _____ a huge tree. Is he a _____ or a person?

"IN ENGLISH" JIGSAW DICTATION UNIT 6 (B)

This _____ the Old Plaza _____ downtown Los Angeles. It _____ the birthplace _____ L.A. The _____ are 100 years old. The Pico House is the first hotel _____ Los Angeles. There _____ many beautiful _____ trees _____ the Plaza. A man is walking _____ the street _____ the Plaza. This is the _____ fire station _____ L.A. The Plaza with its kiosk is a _____ place _____ sit, rest and _____.

What _____ the people _____? They are _____ some entertainment. What _____ the man doing? He is walking _____ the crowd.

This is an _____ church on Olvera Street. There are no _____ on Olvera Street, but there _____ many small shops. The Spanish name _____ L.A. is on this _____. Los Angeles began on _____ 11, 1781. L.A. is _____ 200 years old.

There is a _____ place to eat Mexican food _____ from the church. This couple with _____ baby is having _____ food. Inside the restaurant people _____ waiting to order. These women _____ making tortillas. _____ cook _____ on the stove. Outside people _____ sitting around tables and _____ the beautiful day.

Tourists are _____ among the stands. A woman with a _____ is looking _____ a pretty dress. A _____ is looking _____ a restaurant. They are _____.

We are going _____ the stairs to a candle _____. Look _____ the candles! Look _____ the different colors and _____. The cashier is _____ the cash register. Now we _____ leaving the candle shop and going _____ the stairs. There is a woman in front _____ a stall.

There's a sidewalk restaurant. It's nice to eat outside _____ year in L.A. _____ two men are _____ for some postcards. The stores _____ Olvera Street are _____ old. The women are putting _____ some hats. Their friend _____ taking a picture of them.

Look at the flowers. _____ is one of the first houses in Los Angeles. Its name _____ Avila Adobe. People take tours _____ it every day. There are many _____ things _____ see and buy _____ Olvera Street.

Two women are _____ in front of a _____ tree. Is he statue of a _____?